

INTRODUCTION

Dear Friends,

Bihar is well known for the hub of technical brains, paradise for the intellect, and center for learning religious values& cultural ethics since ancient times. This must be retained and regarded by us. We do strongly feel that there should be co-ordination, co-operation and active association of intellectuals from India and abroad who concern for the development of state, come forward for establishing R&D center and business houses, share your views on different tech topics, implement development projects and help the scattered young brains fit building their career strong.

May our little contribution pave the path for a developed state of Indian Union!
